

Hello Junior Division Faculty,

When writing comments for mid-term feedback, please consider using any of the suggested Frequently Used Feedback Comments below.

In response to focus and attentiveness:

- Always prepared and ready to dance
- Has a strong sense of focus
- Exhibits great energy and enthusiasm
- Good work; push yourself to do more
- Sometimes is a bit distracted but knows how to get back on track
- Struggles with focus and is easily distracted
- More attention to focus is needed to retain corrections
- More effort and energy is needed

In response to use of body and execution (body awareness and technical details):

- Creates strong shapes, has a good sense of using arms in port de bras
- Be sure to fully and completely articulate each movement from beginning to end
- Give each movement more clarity by allotting it more time, not just passing through the movements
- Needs to pay attention to sense of alignment
- Continue to focus on flexibility and refining your technique
- Stretch for more flexibility and movement range
- Continue to work on maintain overall body strength especially in ankles and feet
- Keep working on finding balance in center work
- Continue to work on extending your laterals
- Continue to strengthen your abdominal muscles
- Work on developing mental and physical endurance, focus and strength in order to see greater progress

In response to performance:

- Continue to explore your artistic expression in your dancing
- You are developing a beautiful quality to your dancing
- Good spatial awareness and movement memory
- Continue to exhibit confidence while performing combinations
- Shows great potential but is inconsistent
- Continue to explore presence with facial energy
- Think about incorporating feelings, emotions, expression and intention when you dance